

Stories & song make a difference!!!

TEXAS HERITAGE MUSIC FOUNDATION

offers
FREE PROGRAMMING
for area schools and organizations

From Texas artists like Brian Burns to Native American presentations to Western storytellers to Cowboy poets to inspirational speakers....music, history, story, song, demonstrations.....a multitude of talented artists & presenters are at your fingertips merely for the asking!

Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to bring incredible enrichment to your classroom, club, organization, or entire school.

- * Act quickly....this is a limited, "first come, first served" opportunity!
- * We will work with you to match your request to an appropriate artist & date
- * Contact Paula Reynolds, THMF In School Program Coordinator, at paula.reynolds@kerrvilleisd.net or par@firstssw.com or 895-0975

Upcoming limited performance opportunity....

DUKE DAVIS...singer/songwriter, cowboy poet, actor, horseman, producer & creator of "Double D Productions"

- * Available to KISD last week of September, first two weeks of October
- * Programs: "Westward Ho", "Duke Davis, Music of the West", creative writing

See more at www.rockindd.com

*And don't forget...Texas Living
History Day at Schreiner University,
Sept. 28th....FREE!!!*