

March 24, 2003

Contact:
Kathleen Hudson
792-7409

For Immediate Release:

The Texas Music Coffeehouse is being held on Friday, April 2. World-music artists Ghandiaia will be performing at Schreiner University Kathleen Cailloux Activity Center. The program begins with open mic at 8:00pm, followed by Ghandiaia at 9:00pm. The show is part of Schreiner's Recall program (homecoming), open to the public and free of charge. The International Club of Schreiner will be featured as well as Schreiner alumni.

Ghandiaia hails from Austin, TX. The band includes diverse instruments such as horns, percussion, guitars, bass, and bells. Ghandia recently placed in the "best new band" category of the Austin Chronicle's "Best of Austin" annual awards. Their debut album Uno has been described as "immense, stately, capable of great ferociousness and sublime serenity." They are currently in the midst of an intra-Texas tour.

The event is sponsored by: Drs. Tobin Tilley and Brett Ford, Hill Country Music in Fredericksburg, KFAN Radio, A.P. Navarra window washing, THMF, and Schreiner Student Activities. Visit THMF's website at www.texasheritagemusic.org for more information.