Dobson Cellular One presents

Texas Rebel Radio Network's 5th Annual Windows on Texas

A Music Festival Celebrating Texas Music, January 11-14, 2007

Fredericksburg, TX, January 11-14, 2006: The 5th Annual Windows on Texas is almost here and could be the best year yet with the fabulous wrap up party and Texas Rebel Radio Network bringing KFAN's 15th Birthday Bash back to the famous Luckenbach dancehall. Texas Rebel Radio Network had over 200 artist submissions this year and has narrowed down all artists and venues for this year's event. Some of this year's include: King Cone, Texas Sapphires, Josh Langston, Spur 503, Sunny Sweeney, Melody Mann, McKayliss, John Evans, Ashlee Rose, Dust Devils, Hogg Maulies, Captain Legendary Band, Scott Wiggins, Dead Pyrates Society, Lucky Tomblin, Michael Padgett, Emily Lively, Doc Mason, Mikki Brisk, JT Coldfire, David Lee Kaiser, Deryl Dodd, Pauline Reese, Jay Boy Adams, Lantana, Mighty Orq, Sean Reefer and Texas Renegade. These Texas musicians and songwriters will be featured on January 11-14th in Fredericksburg as Texas Rebel Radio presents its 5th annual Windows on Texas, a festival showcasing some of the best emerging talent in the state of Texas. Texas Rebel Radio has always been a leader in showcasing the brightest new Texas talent and we view this festival as an extension of our on-air philosophy. With this event Texas Rebel Radio is offering our listeners and visitors to Fredericksburg the opportunity to see and hear a wide array of Texas talent live over the course of four days. This year's Windows on Texas will kick off on Thursday, January 11th and over the weekend will feature a wide variety of Texas musicians and several different venues in and around Fredericksburg with a culminating big bash at Luckenbach on Sunday, January 14th.
